

WHEREAS, the citizens of Baltimore have heard with deep grief and disappointment, that doubts exist whether the great Internal Improvement Bill, now pending before the Legislature, will pass the two Branches of that Honorable Body, and they feel impelled in respectful terms to express to the General Assembly, their high sense of the vital importance of said Bill to all the best interest of the State—Wherefor,

Resolved, by the citizens of Baltimore in public meeting assembled, that a committee be appointed to proceed forthwith to Annapolis, to carry and make known in respectful terms to the Legislature, the sentiments of this meeting in relation to the great and important measure now pending before them, and especially to declare it as the opinion of this meeting, and all the classes of this community, that the prosperity of this community, and future wealth and advancement of the State depend mainly, nay, almost entirely upon the success of the measure in the Legislature above alluded to: No subject has ever so entirely engrossed the public attention and anxieties.

Resolved, That the Committee consist of thirty members, and that the foregoing preamble and resolutions be committed to their charge, with instructions to act upon them as their tenor expresses.

JOHN McKIM, Jr. Chairman.
